

1

Tiempo presente de Verbo be

1A present tense verb be: I and you ☐, ☐, and ☐

Escucha y repite. Después lee las reglas.

1 6))) Listen and repeat. Then read the rules.

Full form	Contraction
<input type="checkbox"/> = affirmative form I am Henry. You are in my class.	I'm Henry. You're in my class.
<input type="checkbox"/> = negative form I am not in number 1. You are not a student.	I'm not in number 1. You aren't a student.
Forma interrogativa	Afirmativa resp.corta	Negativa resp.corta
<input type="checkbox"/> = question form	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> = affirmative short answer	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> = negative short answer
Am I in room 2? Are you Lisa?	Yes, you are . Yes, I am .	No, you aren't . No, I'm not .

am y are ambas son formas del verbo be

- am and are are both forms of the verb be.
- I'm Henry. NOT Am Henry.
- I'm Henry. NOT i'm Henry.
- I'm not Michelle. NOT Iamn't Michelle.
- You can also contract are not like this:
You're not a student.

Además puedes contraer "are not" así;
You're not a student

- In questions, put am before I.
Am I in room 2? NOT I am in room 2?
- In questions, put are before you.
Are you in my class? NOT You are in my class?
- Don't use contractions in affirmative short answers.
Are you a student? Yes, I am. NOT Yes, I'm.